

ANOTHER WAR!

Terrible Slaughter—Everything in Sight is Mowed Down, Regardless of Consequences.

Be not alarmed, kind friend, this is not a war that makes sad hearts and desolate homes; but, rather, one which will gladden and cheer and bring comfort to the rich and poor alike. I must clear my store of a good deal of its present stock, in order to make room for new spring goods, and to accomplish this I am waging a slaughtering war on prices. Everything in the Dry Goods and Clothing line is being attacked. Come in and let us show you the great bargains we are offering. You cannot afford to miss this opportunity.

We are going to close these goods out, regardless of cost. If you are looking real bargains, come quick. Don't forget that we are in the Grocery business, too, and can and will save you money.

F. B. Edmundson, THE HUSTLER.

We also sell the Genuine Bone and Peruvian guano, which is a little cheaper, Acid Phosphate, Kainit, Bone and Potash Mixture, Muriate and Sulphate of Potash, Nitrate of Soda, and cotton seed meal.

INSURANCE FOR EMPLOYEES

Features of an Interesting New Law Just Adopted by Holland.

Minister Newal at The Hague has sent an interesting report to the state department at Washington in reference to a measure which provides that employers in certain branches of labor shall insure their employees against pecuniary losses from accidents which may happen to them in the execution of their duties, says the Washington Post. This measure has passed the states general and has received the royal sanction. The law, which has been sent to the state department and is now on file there, contains 116 articles and places 61 classes of labor to which if motor is used it shall apply.

The law provides that the employer shall notify the State Insurance bank, which shall be at Amsterdam, of his trade, whereupon the managers of the bank shall inform him of the class under which his trade falls. It also is provided that the employer shall contribute to the expenses of the bank in proportion to the wages of his employees. He is also made responsible to the bank for the immediate medical treatment of the injured and all the information in the cases. The bank provides for the necessary medical assistance to the person who in performing his duties is injured so that he is incapacitated for work.

In case of death the funeral expenses of the deceased are to be paid, and in cases where relatives are dependent upon the deceased for support a fixed sum of money is to be paid them. There is provided for in the law a council composed of employers and employees, with whom appeals from any decision can be filed. The penalties for the infringement of this law renders the culprit liable to fines varying from $40 to $240.

NEW SIGHT AND CLIP.

Recent Improvements Made to the Krag-Jorgensen Rifle.

The ordnance department of the army has just arranged to equip all the United States magazine rifles, commonly known as the Krag-Jorgensen, with a new sight developed by the department itself after some years' careful experiment. The feature of the sight is the combination of the ordinary hinged elevating eyepiece with a slide movement controlled by a simple and strong friction clamp which turns the sight into a very effective graduated wind gauge, says the Washington Star. The new arrangement adds very little to the number of parts in the sight, practically nothing to its weight and a very slight figure to the cost. The sight can be applied readily to the existing models of magazine rifles, and not only will the future product of the arsenal be thus fitted, but the rifles now in service will be called in from time to time and given new sights.

The ordnance department has also secured an effective clip for the Krag-Jorgensen, something very much needed to bring it up to the rapidity of fire of other magazine rifles. Heretofore the soldier was obliged to draw each cartridge separately from his belt and insert it in the breech. With this clip, resembling that in use in the Mausers, the soldier by a simple movement of the thumb strips the five cartridges at once into the magazine. One hundred of the new guns fitted for use with these clips have been sent to the Philippines, and the department is awaiting the result of the service test to be made there.

BEAUTY AND HER BOSSIES.

Spanking Team of Cows Driven by Brazilian Heiress in Paris.

A beautiful 16-year-old girl, Laura Rienzo, who comes from Bahia and is said to be the greatest heiress in Brazil, has recently been driving through the fashionable thoroughfares of Paris a pair of fast trotting cows harnessed tandem to a pretty cart, says the New York World. The animals are small, black and fiery, but obey the reins perfectly.

The police at first were puzzled to know whether or not the law would permit the circulation of such a strange team. An inspector called upon Miss Rienzo at her residence, where he was assured that the trotting cows were perfectly gentle and had been trained in Rio de Janeiro by order of Mr. Rienzo especially for his daughter's amusement.

The owner of the Nouveau Cirque offered $10,000 for the team, but the offer was declined.

Hard Wood From Oregon.

As a specimen of Oregon hard wood a chunk three feet long and weighing 300 pounds will be found hard to beat at the Pan-American exposition. This log, according to The Morning Oregonian, was brought down from the Cascade locks the other day and given in charge of Henry E. Dosch, to be taken with other specimens of Oregon woods to Buffalo. How long ago it grew or the exact spot upon which it stood when a thrifty fir sapling will never be known, as it is now a solid rock, having been petrified centuries before Lewis and Clark struck the country. One end of the log will be sawed off to show the grain of the fir and to prove to the visitors at the exposition that it is solid clear through.

To April.
Dear April, you're like some coquette,
Some little flirt, I know;
For half the time your face is bright,
And then, all unforeseen,
You drop your head and pout and shed
Tears that you do not mean.
Yes, April, you're a winsome lass,
A little flirt, I know;
You do bewitch this heart of mine
And bid me whisper low,
"You are a true coquette because
You make me love you so!"
—Charles Hanson Towne in April Woman's Home Companion.
